How to Make Money Online

There are tens of thousands of people who earn a continuous stream of income working only a few hours a day. there are also hundreds of thousands who struggle and think there is a secret that is holding them back, a secret that webmasters hide.

The truth:

All successful marketers have one thing in common that determines their success: they invest their precious time to create a product that sells like crazy. they price it between $20 and $30 and list it on a marketplace that has thousands of affiliates who promote it to make money.

If 200 people promote that offer and each affiliate gets at least 50 sales from an offer that costs $20, you make passive income.

How about launching a high ticket offer that costs $200 or $997 in front of a big email list?

How about writing a book, price it at $10 and sell 5000 or 10,000 copies? this is another way to make passive income. you can also launch a software or a tool and ask for a reasonable price. that's how you become valuable in the marketplace: you know what your audience does not have and you give them what they want and they pay you money.

This is how digital marketing works. Get in a hot niche, serve the many and make money online. So many people don't think about launching a product or program. "Why?"

they say.

“I don’t know how. It’s pretty hard. I don’t know what to write or where to start. What if I created this product and nobody buys it.”

We all have these concerns when we start a business.

If you really want to be successful in affiliate marketing and earn five or seven figures, you need to follow your passion, a skill you already know. Maybe you are good at writing articles and books, maybe you do the best web design in the world, or perhaps you are really good at running successful online campaigns for small start ups. Find your passion, package your knowledge in a course and sell it.

You can also become successful without owning a single product, just promoting someone’s product from Clickbank.

I can say affiliate marketing is the best performance model that will make you passive income. that being said, affiliate marketing is not easy.

You first have to learn the basics before beginning any exclusive online business strategies. So, in this eBook I am going to simplify it and show you a secret cash system.

You can follow your passion and turn it into a profitable business. But I highly encourage you to narrow your niche and follow all the steps below.

Let’s begin the journey: this is going to be your step by step guide for success!

1- Launch a Blog:

You first have to have an established blog in order to profit from blogging. You don’t just want to throw some random blog posts up and hit the publish button.

First, you need to set a plan. You have to figure out how much content you want available before the world has access to the site, and usually you want to have a wide variety of blog posts available so that when people find you, they have more than one thing to read.

This will not only make them spend more time on your site, but also help you rank higher on search engines.

Do the work to build up 5-20 blog posts before publishing your blog. then when you launch, make it a big deal and share the news on every social media platform.

You have to get the word out.

There is a lot you have to know going into the blogging world, and building a blog up and making it successful takes time and knowledge. One of the most important things to understand is you can not just write a blog that is great. You need to write blog posts for conversion.

Your writing does not have to be top-notch or the best since Stephen King. It does however have to be intriguing and make people care about what you have to say when you start reaching people on a deeper level, they will stick around, this might not be the easiest to master at first.

In order to figure out where to start, do what I did and look up successful blogs and websites in your niche and read their writing, getting a feel of how much they share and what sounds like. that's what i did and it taught me more than I could have imagined.

You can go as far as signing up for their newsletter and paying attention to what they say and even what their homepage looks like. Learn from those who have done what you want to do.

Essential things to include in your blog:

- Start an email list
- YouTube channel
- Facebook group
- Great blog posts
- Attention grabbing headlines
- Social tribes
- Social buttons
- Guest posting
- About page
- Blog tools
- Conversion focused homepage
- Targeted traffic
- Email subscribers
- Contact us
- Landing page
- Opt-in form

2- Figure Out a Profitable Sub-Niche:

So many people dream about starting an online business and they focus on a broad niche, as they think if they go after a profitable wide area, they will make a lot of money.

If you fundamentally want to profit quickly and easily, you need to choose a niche and break it down to its sub-niches. When you break it, you identify your ideal audience who have a problem and need a solution.

We don't want to target countless people, instead we aim to touch a few minorities and also determine where they hang out, as well as what content we should write for them. This includes what their interests are, what email newsletter we have to write for them and what products they really need.

Let me show you an example:

Two newbies started launching a blog and one decided to learn the basics from bloggers who had much success in an incredibly profitable business.

He got some answers and purchased a few online courses to understand this digital business.

The other guy bragged about how much money "Gurus" earn online. He started in a big niche, but could not identify his audience.

One day he writes about "list building" and the next day he writes about "social media".

Guess what happens?

The second blogger is distracting and confusing his audience.

If you seriously want to know your ideal audience, you should go after their real needs.

If I were starting a blog today, I would search online, read as many replies as possible on forums and Quora. Learn from smart bloggers, conduct market research and ask great questions like:

- Do people suffer from a problem and need a solution?
- Is there any potential in this niche and people search for those keywords?

- Are there at least 100 people who want a real solution?
- What am I obsessed with?
- What do I care about a lot? What am I creative at?
- What could I do online to serve a minority of people?
- What excites me most and causes feelings of eagerness and enthusiasm?
- What are their interests? What content should I write for them?
- How can I serve them? What email newsletter should I write for them?
- By answering these questions you can better understand your passion.

So, if you are in the blogging industry, you basically are not going to serve hundreds of thousands of people. You need to be very specific and so focused to establish a niche within a niche.

You might choose newbie and beginners in affiliate marketing and teach them

How to make money online, you might go after list building and teach people how to build a responsive list or you might choose surfing and teach new surfers how to ride waves.

When i say focused, i mean narrowing your niche and selecting something you are passionate about. something you care about a lot. something that excites you the most. something you could develop and help people solve their specific problems.

Which niche is most profitable?

Without hesitation, the answer is health, wealth and relationships. Why?

People want to be healthy, have money in their pocket and be in a happy and lasting relationship. So I highly recommend a sub-niche in one of these huge markets.

In health, you can break this niche down and find several sub-niches such as...get rid of Acne, lose belly fat, get six packs....etc.

In wealth, you can break this broad niche down and find several sub-niches such as...earn Income online, write EBooks, launch a blog, drive traffic and build an email list....etc.

In relationships, you can also break this niche down and find several sub-niches such As....get their ex back, prepare for a wedding, intimate relationship....etc.
For example: pick "list building sub-niche" (wealth niche)

If you are passionate about » list building topic » and want to teach people how to build a list, just launch a website and write between 5-20 blog posts about list building and tweak them for SEO to get organic traffic.

Next, go to Google and find the top 10 sites in your sub-niche. use the power of similarweb.com to know the total visits a website gets a month.

At this point you should go and write at least 5 to 7 guest posts about list building to draw readers to your blog. Now, you are building a list and you are going to email them on a consistent basis and send them products.

Step1: pick a target keyword that gets at least 1000 searches a month

★ how to get leads	770	$6.92	53	51
★ lead generation	55,000	$10.15	47	47
★ how to generate leads	2,500	$4.99	54	50
★ sales leads	6,200	$4.46	86	39
★ how to generate leads in sales	980	$6.66	56	26
★ online lead generation	970	$6.40	30	37
★ marketing lead	2,700	$8.64	21	43

Step2: write a blog post around that keyword

Step3: optimize it for SEO

Step4: repeat the process over and over

Step5: reach your 20 blog posts about list building sub-niche.

Step6: get traffic and new subscribers

Step7: Write and send relevant newsletters Why the list building sub-niche?

It's trending, and everlasting. everyone wants to grow a list and buy a digital product to build a loyal and big list.

- 1. People are in need to build an email list
- 2. Most people who blog want to know ways and methods of blogging
- 3. When you show them tools, resources and strategies they will buy from you.
- 4. They have a burning desire to have an audience

All you have to do is to write relevant articles and tweak them for SEO. In turn, you attract targeted visitors who are deeply interested in building a list....

Email marketing: Market growth 20.16 B by 2024 and is going to increase exponentially. Millions of emails are sent each day to millions of customers to buy something.

Here is a list of sub-niches: Traffic, list building, SEO, Make Money Online. Conversion

Here is also a list of hot niches: health, wealth, dating, relationships, beauty, weight loss, fitness, pets, self-development, finance and insurance.

Health niche: how to get rid of acne

★	get rid of ane	N/A	N/A	N/A	55
★	how to get rid of acne	78,100	$2.13	95	57
★	how to get rid of pimples	129,000	$1.28	64	46
★	how to get rid of acne scars	100,000	$1.99	100	47
★	back acne	48,100	$1.07	98	55
★	how to remove pimples	80,800	$0.40	85	52
★	how to get rid of spots	26,700	$0.85	17	44

If you are in the health niche, you simply need to know it's a huge market and will remain very profitable at any time.

You are going to find a sub-niche within the health niche. For instance, how to get rid of acne, people are desperate, very unhappy and uncomfortable, acne always makes them miserable and complaining, they struggle for a cure. If you show them a digital information product or a physical product they buy from you.

This sub-niche might not be your best. But it's trendy and profitable.

People are willing to show you the money when you solve their problems. Just go and launch your 5-20 captivating articles and build a targeted email list, and then follow all the steps I show you.

Sport Niche: how to surf

I have never seen somebody blogs within the surf niche. People love this water sport because it is fun and it is an important activity for the body. People who ride waves for the first time want to become good surfers and ride big waves. And i see people heavily travel to a surf destination when they hear big waves.

And surfers buy physical products because they really need them when they get in the water. Amazon is the biggest online e-commerce store in the world with millions of daily and active customers who buy stuff again and again.

You can sell surf equipment such as surfboards, surf suit bags, water sport shoes, surfboard travel bags, surfboard leashes, wetsuit pants, surfboard covers and wetsuits for men and women.

In general, any equipment that relates to surfing could be profitable. Just open an account on Amazon affiliate program, then launch a viable blog and follow the easy steps I demonstrated above.

Once you have identified your sub-niche that fits into your business, write an irresistible offer and super high value emails to attract visitors to sign up to your mailing list.

3- Set a minimum 7- 14 Newsletters as follow up sequences:

Nobody will listen to someone who is not genuine. that vibe comes across very clearly online and that's why you really have to get deep and give your story.

Share your insights and your journey, talk about your struggles and how to get them.

It is all about being true to yourself and your mission. It is not about enough, something i learned that has made the biggest difference for me is two words that make up a powerful principle: "give more". share your story and tell something new and serve more and you will see subscribers flock to your blog and your funnel.

The best word you can use in your blog is "FREE" I give free high value information and in Exchange I build trust.

The more you share and the more genuine you are. the more people trust you, that trust is what will turn profit in the end. the more you give today, the more you harvest tomorrow.

By now you should have signed up for some emails through other blogs in your niche, they will have sent a number of emails or maybe you just get emails sporadically from blogs you signed up for a while ago.

Start studying these emails like i did. Learn what different people share and you will soon realize that's all high value content that's being shared for free.

Why would someone give so much free information away? It is simple, it builds trust

When you email directly to subscribers, even through an automated service you are creating a lot of more intimacy than a blog post. You are connecting to people on a different level and the more someone trusts you, the more they will purchase a service or product from you.

To make these emails work for you, you'll need to offer it as a lead magnet. Not what a lead magnet is? Well, it is just as it sounds. It is a magnet you can use to lead people to take action in the way you want. most often, you will hear this term when it comes to your email list.

A lead magnet is the sense is a free downloadable EBook or other freebie given in exchange for a Reason's email address.

A prominent lead magnet that fits into your business. Once you have it done, the next step is to write a compelling headline that turns visitors into subscribers, let's figure out how to do it well.

Step# 4: Write a Persuasive Headline

If a tree falls in the forest and no one is around to hear it, does it make a sound?

The same thing happens when you write your lead magnet headline.

Nobody is going to enter his email address unless you write an attention-grabbing headline.

Headline is the most important part in your offer. Nobody knows whether your offer has a smart answer or brilliant ideas that resonate with a community of people. But when the headline performs well, it could mean subscribers over and over.

Does your Free Offer have a headline that create excitement?

If your answer is no, then I am going to show you 3 big factors to write cash sucking headlines.

- 1. Include numbers (3 steps to...)
- 2. Always write power words
- 3. Guarantee results in a short time

Look at newspapers and magazines in several markets: entrepreneurship, Forex, dating, surfing, fitness, fashion, beauty. they write the best headlines on professionally designed covers to sell hundreds of copies a day.

They hire the most creative designers and copywriters to sell the magazine with just a few words on the cover.

So, if you want to attract the most clicks to your offer, you have to write a great headline. it is not easy to come up with a compelling headline, you need a springboard of information, such as getting to know freelancer's websites, sales pages, ecommerce stores, successful Facebook ads, articles, YouTube videos and marketing Experts.

Google!

If you didn't find a good headline for your irresistible offer.

Step1: Go to www.google.com

Step2: Enter your keyword followed by "squeeze page"

Step3: Click on images

Step4: You'll find unlimited funnels of Internet millionaires

Step5: Don't copy, model

For Example: list building "squeeze page" while searching i found four squeeze pages with fancy headlines:

- ☒ 4 steps to build your email list in 24 hours
- ☒ How to get 1000 email subscribers in six months
- ☒ How I grew my email list from zero to 10.000 in a few months
- ☒ How to get 35.000 visitor in, Yes a 1 day

If your blog is about building an email list and you picked up one of these titles, then your report will bring you tremendous numbers of visitors that will turn into thousands of loyal subscribers.

Another example:

- ☒ How to get rid of acne "squeeze page"
- ☒ Overcoming acne-skin care secrets you must know!
- ☒ Take control of your acne in just 1 step

These headlines will convert 9 out of 10 visitors into raving fans.

Now, let's see how you can integrate your lead magnet with an auto responder so that people can receive the FREE offer automatically.

Step# 5: Integrate Your Freebie with Email Auto responder

Email marketing is one of the most powerful tools in any business owner's arsenal. It is no cost-effective targeted and measurable way to reach your customers with valuable information and in order to email your list of subscribers, you need an autoresponder, an autoresponder is a tool that can help you send out newsletters to your email list on autopilot, it helps you build that strong relationship and let your Email subscribers get the information they want, it will also be used to increase engagement with your Audiences, generate leads and increase sales.

You are just wondering, which is a better option for you?

Get Response is a powerful marketing automation tool that helps you create and send marketing emails, run online advertising campaigns and build customer loyalty programs. It also provides tools for measuring the success of your campaigns, it has been used by small businesses to fortune 500 companies for over 15 Years. get response has a 30 days free trial period where you can try their services without any obligation or Risk to see if it suits your needs before paying monthly.

I am using getresponse because it is simple to use for follow ups and marketing

For a cycle to be created, you need a list. when someone joins your list, you put them on the cycle, then you build cycles and select which list you want to link to. setting a minimum 14 killer emails in a series is very simple.

Create your autoresponder account using your email. Click on “menu” and on auto responders afterwards start setting up your list for auto responders.

In this process, you can build good newsletters and schedule the day you prefer to send them. Getresponse recorded multiple videos to explain how to automate your emails. This single video shows you how to get started...Quick video

When people sign up to your Newsletter, they have to receive a confirmation email. You also ensure you send broadcast messages to build a strong relationship with subscribers.

Email marketing is about growing your business and making sales automatically.

When someone arrives at your blog, they have to find a place to opt-in. The homepage is more important than you realize, you might see it as a place where blog posts live. But it is far more than that: it is the first impression.

So, what did I do?

Optimizing your homepage to convert those visitors is key. What do you want them to do? In a perfect world. What does each visitor do to drive your blog forward?

Now that you know that. Create a means for them to do so and make it highly visible. Giving each person the option to sign up for a freebie is an ideal way to create a large subscribers list and through that list, you will make a profit.

Create a blog homepage that is exciting and show people what they get when they sign up. when you are designing a homepage, make sure you have a professional picture to attract visitor's attention. A picture is so important because it creates so much sense and increases conversions dramatically.

I'll reveal how to increase your conversions on the homepage:

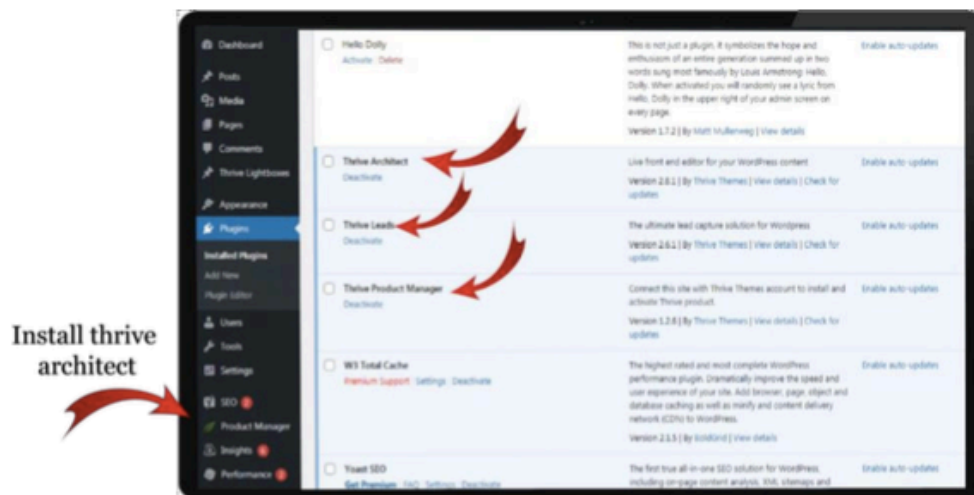

The picture is more important:

I put my picture on the homepage to grab the eye and increase conversions. I wanted to show visitors two things: my own picture and a compelling headline that creates curiosity. the intention is to attract as many visitors as possible to join my email list. I don't recommend putting an icon, instead show who you are and describe your online business.

2-Write compelling articles to send to your subscribers:

If you are familiar with email marketing, you know bloggers send educational blog posts from time to time to warm up their loyal subscribers and this is very important to stay in business to generate sales.

Excellent writing involves detailed constructing. Carefully choose the best words. Words that move readers stand out like a beautiful woman in an exhilarating mob on a page or a screen you are viewing. to do this type of writing, you must continue to educate yourself and relearn the fundamentals.

Regular writing not only lessens your fear of getting writer's block, but you also develop a distinctive style that enhances your writing skills. But just because no one reads the content you put together, continue to write. Practicing your writing makes it flawless.

The most celebrated authors read continuously and obtain innovative ideas. Don't just read blog posts—expand on the stuff you read and the excellent technique to hold yourself accountable and keep going is to find a writing partner. You receive constructive criticism when you partner up with another writer.

Take a lesson in reading. Engaging in a course will encourage you to be answerable to someone and reading causes you to learn useful knowledge which improves your techniques in your written work. You will never change anything without practicing your craft.

Find and evaluate the writing of other people you follow. Many people regularly visit the same websites or pages because the content speaks directly to them—but vast numbers of people don't comprehend why their favorite articles are so enticing.

Plagiarism isn't the same as impersonation. recognize what your job is and see if you can use it to develop your writing skills.

Write an outline of what you want to write before setting a pen on proverbial paper. Outlines are your plans of battle and enable you to win that war.

Proofreading is a hard skill to master for novice writers as it values effort and time. Correct the writing properly.

Note that your initial draft isn't the professional piece to use, as it requires alteration. First, put your thoughts down in writing, then go back to clean it up. Written work is an evolving process and even the most prominent names need to put in a considerable amount of days working out the content that they may be too ashamed to show to anyone.

How to Drive Laser Targeted Traffic

In a small city, there existed a small offline clothing store named “store 21” that was struggling to get customers and sell clothing. the store’s owner was determined to come up with a creative and engaging plan to attract more customers and increase sales.

One day, an aha moment happened, he realized that in the age of digital dominance people were craving unique and personalized experiences, with this newfound insight, he decided to transform “store 21” into more than just a simple store, he wanted it to become a hub for people seeking a genuine connection by selling them what they want.

Mehdi tirelessly worked on revamping the store’s interior design, giving it a fresh and inviting ambiance, he created different themed sections, within the store that appealed to good and low priced outfits and interest, each section inside the store offered curated collections to engage customers on a deeper level...initiated weekly workshop and time for inviting locals, these moments allowed people to purchase outfits of their own desire and that was not the most important thing.

One common mistake many Entrepreneurs make is waiting for customers to come to them, they sit back and hope that sales will start pouring in, but unfortunately, people do not turn up and sales do not come in.

Instead of waiting for customers to magically appear, proactive measures need to be taken to attract and engage potential buyers. It is essential for business owners to understand that they can not rely solely on word of mouth, or a great store alone; they must actively seek out their target audience and create opportunities for them

That's what Mehdi “store 21” did. He followed a genuine strategy. Instead of waiting for customers to come to his store, he started recording short videos, featuring his favorite clothing pieces and styling tips. His intention is to bring in store experience directly to potential customers through major media platforms.

Mehdi’s videos are authentic, engaging and creatively shot, he effortlessly showcases the beauty and styles of each..highlighting their intricate details, quality fabrics and versatility, his infectious energy radiates through the screen and enthusiastically shares anecdotes about the designers behind each piece.

As Mehdi consistently posts videos on various media sites like Instagram, Facebook and Tiktok, they begin to catch the attention of locals around the city, viewers are captivated by his genuine passion for individuals and impressed by his impeccable taste in curating a wide range of styles.

I highly recommend using video as it is the easiest and fastest way to get customers and sales.

Video marketing allows you to convey your brand's message. In a visually compelling and memorable way. It allows you to showcase your products or services, tell a story or educate about your market.

Studies have shown that videos are more likely to be watched and shared compared to other forms of content. videos have shown to be highly effective in capturing attention and conveying information.

Some people believe that their offer is good and they do not want to do video marketing or paid ads, it is important to remember that without proper marketing and promotion even the best courses can go unnoticed by potential customers. On the other hand there are those who built a better course than their competitors, however waiting for customers to come without actively reaching out and engaging with them can lead to missed opportunities. To truly succeed in attracting customers, it is necessary to do marketing and start channels that will help you spread awareness about your offers.

Instead of waiting for the sales to come on their own accord, take positive steps such as "video marketing". Video allows Entrepreneurs to showcase their courses and services in a visually engaging and interactive way. it provides an opportunity for them to convey their unique selling points.

The use of video has become an essential thing for entrepreneurs and newbies in today's digital landscape. it enables them to effectively market their courses.

All you need is a camera and microphone and start recording step by step videos to "SHOW UP" and attract attention and subscribers.

If your business is stuck at zero sales and zero customers, you know why. you didn't choose video for your business. you went after different traffic methods that do not work well.

People consume videos more than anything.

It is unlike other types of content. video allows potential clients to not only hear your message, but also see your expressions, body language and hear the tone of your voice, this creates a more personal and authentic experience, making it easier for them to get to know you on a deeper level.

Moreover video has a higher perceived value in comparison to other forms of content, it conveys professionalism and credibility while capturing attention more effectively, it can be used to demonstrate products and sell services, share video testimonials from satisfied customers or provide valuable insights.

When using video into your marketing strategy, you can effectively know new people and leave a lasting impression, whether it is through live streams, tutorials, interviews or behind-the scenes footage. the possibilities are endless when it comes to utilizing video as a means of connecting with potential clients.

Video was the most focused tool for Mehdi. as the word quickly spreads about this small store owner who managed to make a big touch with his creative approach. Influencers started sharing Mehdi's videos on their social profiles.

Soon enough. people from across the city started visiting the store and appreciate having a connection with an actual person, behind serving more people, selling the cheapest and high quality outfits, they trust Mehdi's taste and experience as he guides them through their outfits choices.

Mehdi realizes that he now possesses platforms that allow him to promote sustainable clothes, his store becomes more than just a store, it becomes a symbol of connection between him and customers.

As time goes by, Mehdi's efforts pay off immensely; his videos gain traction across all social media. As people share them with friends who are drawn to his unique approach to selling clothes, sales start soaring and his store becomes a go to destination for seeking quality outfits. through his dedication, creativity and strategic use of video content, Mehdi not only revives his struggling store but also establishes himself as a trusted seller in the clothing industry.

YouTube : A Powerful Marketing Platform

Youtube has revolutionized the way we consume and interact with video content online, with over 3.9 billion monthly active users, it has become a powerhouse platform for entertainment, education and even business promotion.

One of the key benefits of youtube is its vast reach and global audience. content creators have the opportunity to connect with millions of viewers from all corners of the world making it an ideal place for sharing ideas, building a brand or even launching a career.

When it comes to statistics, youtube boasts impressive numbers- it is estimated that over two billion logged- in users visit the platform every month- making it one of the largest search engines in the world- furthermore- youtube reaches more 18-49 year old in the united states than any cable network showcasing its immense reach and influence.

Beyond its vast-base, YouTube also offers a range of benefits for content creators and businesses, one notable benefit in its potential for global visibility. with videos available in multiple languages and accessible from anywhere with an internet connection, youtube provides a platform for reaching audiences on a global scale.

There is something truly unique and powerful about youtube that often goes unnoticed by many, it is a platform where creators can unleash their creativity and share their content in a way that has the potential to grow exponentially over time unlike other platforms. Youtube offers an unparalleled opportunity for video creators to thrive and reach a global audience like never before.

When it comes to maximizing the reach and longevity of your video content, the platform you choose plays a crucial role. While posting a video on Facebook may initially grant you visibility in the newsfeed of your target audience, its lifespan is limited to just a few days before it disappears into obscurity. On the other hand, Youtube offers a distinct advantage by providing ongoing traffic for not only today and tomorrow, but also for years to come.

The ephemeral nature of videos on Facebook can be a significant drawback for businesses seeking long-term exposure and engagement with their potential customers. Once your video is pushed down in a user's newsfeed, it becomes increasingly difficult for it to resurface or gain traction again. This means that if you are solely on Facebook as your primary video platform, you may miss out on potential viewership and opportunities to connect with your target audience overtime.

In contrast, Youtube's immense popularity and searchability make it an ideal platform for ensuring that your videos continue to drive traffic well beyond their initial upload date. With proper optimization and strategic use of keywords, your videos can rank in search results not only today, but in the future. This means that even years down the line, people search for relevant content and will stumble upon your videos, providing you with consistent traffic and potential customers.

By leveraging Youtube's longevity factor, you can create an evergreen library of videos that continuously attract new viewers while maintaining relevance with existing ones. This extended lifespan allows you to establish yourself as an authority within your industry and build a loyal following overtime.

While Facebook offers immediate visibility within its news feed ecosystem, it lacks the long-term sustainability that Youtube provides. By choosing Youtube as your primary video platform, you can enjoy ongoing traffic generation today and even years from now, ensuring that your content reaches and resonates with your dream customers far into the future.

It is an opportunity to showcase your personality, expertise and the value viewers can expect from subscribing to your channel, by creating an engaging and visually appealing trailer you can grab the attention of new visitors and leave them eager to explore more.

In addition to the trailer. a brief but compelling description is displayed alongside it. This description acts as a concise summary of what your channel is all about. it should provide an overview of the topics you cover. highlight any special features of the series you offer and convey why viewers should subscribe.

Remember that this trailer and description are specifically targeted towards new visitors who have not yet subscribed, therefore, it is essential to make it captivating enough for them to want to hit that subscribe button. by putting thought into crafting an intriguing trailer and enticing description, you can effectively communicate the value of your youtube channel and convert casual viewers into loyal subscribers.

Choose the Right Keywords for your Videos to Rank Super Fast on YouTube:

Choosing the right keywords for your youtube channel videos is good for increasing visibility and attracting a large number of audience by strategically selecting relevant keywords, you can optimize your videos content and improve its search rankings.

When you choose keywords for your youtube channel videos. It is important to consider the following factors.

1- Relevance: choose keywords that accurately reflect the content of your video, use specific terms that are related to your niche or topic to attract the right audience.

2- Search volume: look for keywords that have a high search volume, but low competition, this will increase the likelihood of your video appearing in search results and gaining more views.

3- Long-tail keywords: consider using long tail keywords, which are longer and more specific phrases that target a narrower audience, these can be less competitive and help you reach more targeted visitors.

4- Trending topics: stay up-to-date with content trends and popular topics within your niche, incorporating trending keywords into your video titles or description can help attract attention from viewers searching for those topics.

5- Keyword research tool: utilize keyword research tools such as Google trends, youtube analytics third party tools like semrush or ahrefs to identify relevant keywords with high potential traffic.

Remember, choosing the right keywords is just one part of optimizing your youtube channel videos, it is also essential to create engaging videos that resonate with your target audience and encourage them to watch, like and share your videos.

Finding the right keywords is good for optimizing your online videos and driving traffic to your offer. If you are struggling with broad root keywords, such as, how to make money online, I can tell you there is a technique that can help you uncover hundreds of relevant keywords.

Simply, head over to the youtube search bar and type in your root keyword, followed by space.. as you start typing youtube's suggested search results will begin to appear. these suggestions are based on popular searches related to your root keywords.

By utilizing this good technique, you can uncover specific variations of your root keywords that people are actively searching for. For example, you might come across suggestions like "how to make money online" then, you will find long tail keywords like "how to make money as a beginner" "how to make money with affiliate marketing" and the list is long.

These suggested search results provide valuable insight into what people are looking for in relation to your root keyword, incorporating these variations into your content can help your target audience and improve your chances of ranking higher in search results.

If you are looking to expand your list of relevant keywords and optimize your video content strategy effectively. then, give this technique a try.

Create your first video to create your first youtube video, start by brainstorming ideas that align with your interest and expertise, consider what type of content you want to create, whether it is tutorials, vlogs, product reviews or something entirely unique. this will help you define the purpose and direction of your channel. (we demonstrated this above)

Next, gather the necessary equipment to produce high quality videos. a good camera or smartphone with a decent resolution. along with adequate lighting and audio equipment can make a significant difference in the overall production value of your videos.

Once you have your ideas and equipment in place. It is time to plan out your video content and outline the key points or script that you want to cover in each video. this will help your stay organized during filming and ensure that you deliver clear and engaging content.

When it comes to filming, find a quiet location with good lighting where you feel comfortable on camera. practice speaking clearly and confidently before hitting the record button. remember that authenticity is key. be yourself and let your personality shine through.

After recording your footage, it is for post-production editing. there are various software options available for editing videos such as screenpal. Imovie for beginners, you can also add music or graphics if desired and ensure that the final touch is visually appealing.

Lastly, do not forget about optimizing your videos for searchability on youtube. use relevant keywords in your title, description, tags and thumbnails image to increase its visibility among potential viewers.

Remember that creating quality video takes time and practice. do not be discouraged if your first videos do not reach thousands of views immediately. consistency is key. upload regularly so that viewers can anticipate new videos from you.

So, take the leap and create your first youtube video. embrace the opportunity to share your passion. connect with others and make a lasting impact in the vast world of online video content.

Video hook: crafting an irresistible youtube video hook is essential for capturing the attention of your audience and keeping them engaged throughout your video.

One of the most effective techniques is to start with a compelling question or statement that piques curiosity. By posing a thought-provoking question or making a bold statement, you immediately grab the viewer's attention and make them eager to find out more.

Another valuable insight is to tap into emotions right from the beginning, emotionally charged hooks have a powerful impact on viewers. as they create immediate connections and make them invested in your video. Whether it is excitement, humor, surprise or even fear evoking strong emotions will keep viewers hooked from the start.

Tell a story: leveraging storytelling can greatly enhance your video hook, narrative a captivating story or presenting a relatable scenario can draw viewers in and make them want to see how it unfolds. storytelling not only engaged but also creates an emotional bond with your audience.

Furthermore, incorporating visuals that are visually appealing and relevant to the topic can greatly enhance your hook. Visual cues such as intriguing images or dynamic scenes can instantly captivate viewers and entice them to continue watching.

Lastly, Keeping your hook concise and straight to the point is for maintaining viewer interest. by getting right into the main point of your video without unnecessary preamble, you ensure that viewers do not lose interest before they even get started.

This simple yet effective formula will guide you in writing out a compelling script for your youtube videos.

By following this formula, you will be able to create a tight and well-structured script that engages your audience from start to finish. the outline ensures that you cover all the important points and keep your videos organized.

It is time to bring your script to life. grab your cell phone or camera, position yourself in front of the lens and confidently deliver your video, by looking directly into the lens, you establish a strong connection with viewers. making them feel like they are having a conversation with you.

So why wait? embrace the power of the simple script, the ultimate goal of creating these videos is to captivate and engage individuals who are actively searching for video. By hooking their interest and providing valuable information, you can effectively direct them back to your youtube channel homepage and encourage them to become loyal subscribers.

Upload your videos on your own channel

In order to ensure your videos are aligned with youtube's algorithms and maximize their visibility. just follow this checklist of six key steps for each video you upload.

These have proven to be effective in optimizing your video and increasing your chances of reaching a wider audience on the platform.

1. Thorough keyword research: you conduct extensive keyword research to identify relevant and high ranking- keywords that are related to the video's topic. by strategically incorporating these keywords into your titles, description and tags, you increase the likelihood of your videos being discovered by users searching for related content.
2. Compelling titles and thumbnails: you understand the importance of capturing viewers attention within seconds, therefore, you craft engaging titles and accurately represent the video's content while piquing curiosity. additionally, you create eye-catching thumbnails that entice viewers to click on your videos among countless others in their feed. showing your face on your youtube videos thumbnails has numerous benefits. Firstly, it adds a human touch to your video. making it more relatable and authentic, viewers are more likely to click on a video when they see a friendly face that they can connect with. Additionally, featuring your face helps build trust and credibility. it also helps creating consistency across your channel. When viewers see familiar faces popping up in the recommended videos or subscription feeds, they are more likely to recognize and engage with your video, this can lead to increased views, likes, comments and ultimately subscriber growth.

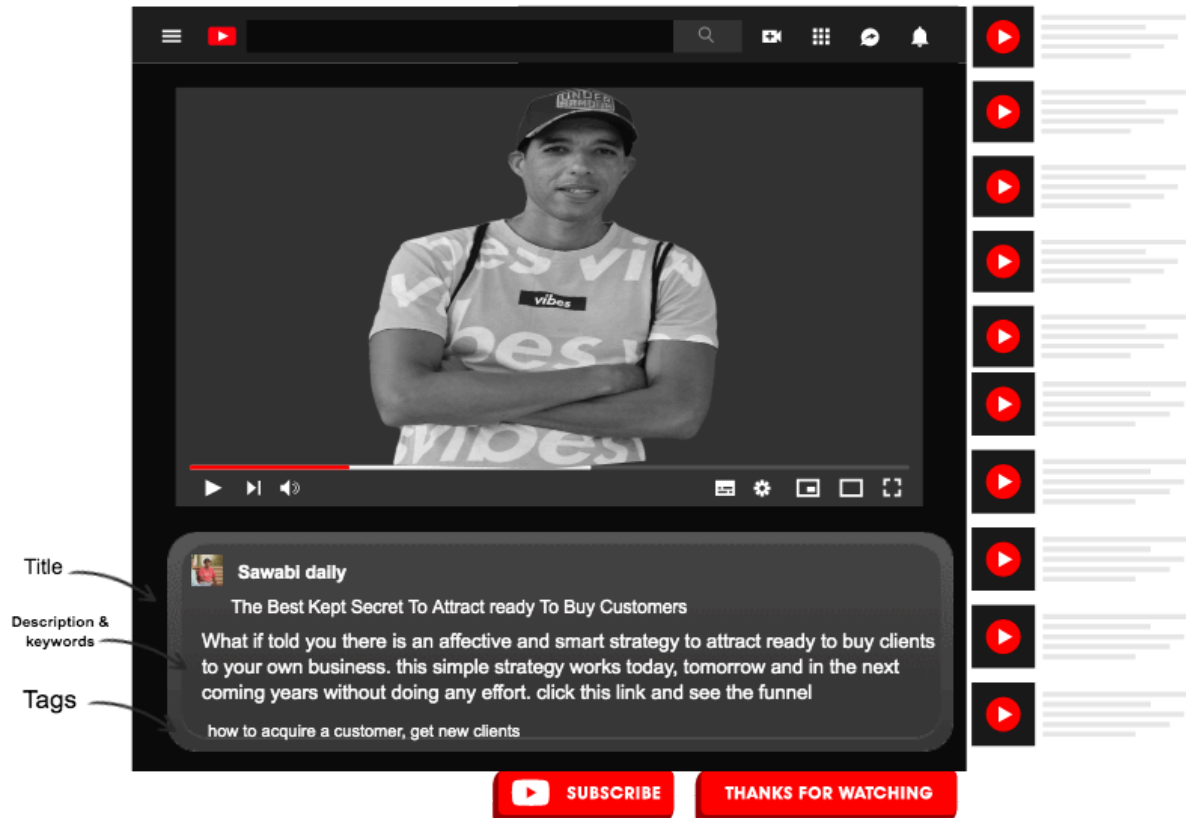

Compelling titles that convert well:

- Secret of.....
- The number one.....
- Guaranteed.....
- Do this to get.....

→ How I....

→ The only...

3. Optimized description: descriptions are carefully crafted to provide valuable information about the video while incorporating relevant keywords naturally. you ensure they are concise yet informative, encouraging viewers to engage with your videos further. the purpose of video description is to provide viewers with a clear understanding of what they can expect from watching the video. by avoiding unnecessary distractions and focusing on one main point, you can ensure that your audience receives a concise and compelling message. whether you are promoting a product, sharing valuable information or entertaining your audience. A straightforward video description will help viewers quickly grasp the essence of your video, remember, people want to know one thing. so make it count! focus on filling your funnel with consistent leads and follow up with them.
4. Strategic tagging: proper tagging plays a crucial role in helping youtube understand what your videos are about and where they should be categorized with its algorithm. framework you can use a combination of broad and specific tags that accurately represent the video's content. making it easier for users to find you through search queries.
5. Engaging video content: high quality and engaging video content is paramount for success on youtube's platform, by creating visually appealing videos that captivate viewers from start to finish. you increase watch time- and import metric considered by youtube's algorithm when determining rankings.
6. Consistent upload schedule: maintaining a consistent upload schedule demonstrates reliability and commitment towards providing fresh content regularly. this helps build an engaged subscriber base who anticipated new releases from us, ultimately signaling positive engagement signals on youtube's algorithm.

One must pay close attention to key elements such as keywords, titles, thumbnails, description and strategic tagging. these factors play a crucial role in attracting viewers and ensuring that your videos are discovered by the right audience. It is also important to note that these core elements may change overtime due to evolving trends and algorithms, therefore. closely montoring your audience preferences and behavior is essential for adapting your approach accordingly.

Record and upload at least 37 videos:

You first have to start your own youtube channel to get organic traffic, you do not just quickly expect mass traffic when you post your first video.

First and foremost. you have to set a publishing plan, you also need to figure out how many videos you want available to get subscribers hit that “subscribe button”. the more videos you have, the more popular your channel will become as posting lots of videos make people want to subscribe and come back. this will not make people spend more time on your channel, but more importantly, you will start to rank higher on youtube search engines.

In order to establish a strong online presence on youtube. It is good to consistently create and upload exciting, entertaining, informative and attractive videos.

Recording at least 37 videos on your youtube channel can be a game changer.

Why 37 videos. you might ask, well. this number of videos you have on your channel plays a significant role in attracting and retaining viewers. It shows that you are committed to providing valuable content and increasing the chance of your channel being discovered by potential subscribers.

By consistently uploading videos, you not only increase your visibility but also build credibility and trust with your audience, each video is an opportunity in your niche.

These videos have to be amazing and i do not mean good videos. I mean high quality videos.

Great as in! these videos have to maximize your chances of gaining substantial traffic.

They have to be for your target audience, Entrepreneurs, clueless newbies, internet marketers, sales people and bloggers.

With over 37 videos you will learn how to leverage the power of video marketing and drive traffic like never before. You will also master video creation and unlock the full potential of your content.

This will be the best investment of your time. just think how many viewers you will get today, tomorrow and in the next coming years from old videos. they will send you a steady stream of visitors, your videos remain noticed and your business grows exponentially!

Furthermore. Having a substantial number of videos allows for greater variety in topics and formats. this diversity keeps viewers engaged and encourages them to explore more of your videos.

Remember that quality should never be compromised for quantity, while aiming for at least 37 videos is important, it is equally essential to ensure that each video is well-produced, informative, entertaining or valuable in some way.

So start planning and record those videos! with each upload, you will be one step closer to establishing a strong online presence on youtube and connecting with a wider audience.

I recently came across an inspiring story shared by Mr Beast that i thought would resonate with you as a youtube content creator.

Mr beast renowned figure in the youtube community, advises aspiring creators to make 100 videos before seeking advice, why? Because he believes that the majority of people give up before even reaching that milestone. In fact, he highlights that those people who go above and beyond by creating 200 videos demonstrate true dedication and determination, ultimately proving they do not really need advice at that point.

This story serves as a very powerful reminder of the importance of perseverance in achieving success on youtube.

99% of people give up before reaching this milestone, but here is the exciting part; those who go even further and make 200 videos are the ones who truly do not need advice.

Do not let yourself be part of the 99% who give up too soon. become one of the few who go above and beyond by creating not just 37 as i said or 100 videos, but 200 remarkable videos.

How to get more people to subscribe to your youtube channel

Give them a reason. Once you have created and uploaded your video on your youtube channel. send your video to your email list. you are directly reaching out to these people who have already shown an interest in what you offer. these individuals have willingly subscribed to receive updates from you. making them more likely to engage and share your video.

Not only does sharing your video via email increase visibility of your video, but it also allows you to provide additional context and personalization. you can write a compelling subject line that grabs attention and entices recipients to click through and watch the video, in the body of the email, you can include a brief description or teaser about the video. highlighting its value or any unique aspects that make it worth watching.

Neil Patel is a passionate content creator and digital marketer, he devised a smart technique that involved sending out a captivating newsletter to his email list of subscribers. Each time he records a video, he posts it to his list. Instead of solely relying on youtube's algorithm, Neil saw this as the opportunity to directly connect with loyal subscribers.

as soon as Neil hit send on that enticing email. anticipation buzzed through his subscriber base like wildfire. they could not resist clicking through to watch the video. within minutes of sending out that cleverly crafted newsletter. Neil Patel witnessed an incredible surge in video views. the momentum grew exponentially as more people engaged with Neil's videos resulting in increased subscriber numbers.

utilizing your email list as a promotional tool for your youtube videos is a strategic way to attract more views, subscribers and grow your channel organically.

Deliver value in your videos: when viewers find value in your videos. they are more likely to subscribe to your channel and share it with others. this not only helps increase your subscriber count but also expands your reach and potential growth.

consistently delivering valuable information in your videos has a direct impact on filling your funnel with consistent leads, when viewers see the quality of information you provide, they are more inclined to trust you, as this is the number one factor in checking out your youtube page to know who you are and what you sell.

Offer practical advice and tips: when providing practical advice, make sure it is relevant and actionable, identify the pain point or challenges that your audience may be facing and provide solutions or strategies that they can implement immediately. remember to break down complex concepts into simple steps. making it easier for your viewers to follow along. whether you are sharing tutorials, how to guide or industry insights. make sure that each video contains valuable takeaways that your audience can implement immediately.

step-by-step guides: that viewers can apply in their own lives or projects. By providing actionable insights, you empower your audience and give them a reason to subscribe for more valuable information.

A professional-looking video: not only grabs attention, but also leaves a lasting impression on viewers. It conveys credibility, expertise and professionalism which are essential in building that strong trust and attracting new audiences. To create a professional-looking video, several factors come into play. First and foremost is the quality of the visuals. High-resolution footage, crisp images and well-compressed shots contribute to the overall.

Furthermore, attention should be given to lighting and sound. Proper lighting ensures that the subjects are well lit and visually appealing, clear audio is equally important as it enhances the viewer's experience by delivering a clear message without any distractions.

Another aspect to consider is the content itself, a well-scripted narrative or storyline helps convey your message effectively while keeping viewers engaged throughout the video. Investing in creating a professional-looking video is worth every effort as it reflects positively on your brand image and helps you connect with your audience in a meaningful way, whether it is for marketing purposes or internal communication. A crafted video can leave a lasting impact that sets you apart from your competitors.

Consistency is key: Regularly upload new videos so that subscribers know when they can expect fresh material from you. Consistency builds trust with your audience while keeping them engaged with consistent doses of value.

Michael Meany started his youtube channel with great enthusiasm, but it took him sometime to reach his first milestone of 200 subscribers. However, he did not give up, he continued to put in consistent effort and dedication towards his content creation.

Within five months, Michael experienced a significant leap forward as he added another 800 subscribers to his channel, but here is where the magic happened—in just one month after that, he skyrocketed by an additional 200 subscribers! That is a remarkable 20% overall growth in just one month! Now he has over 23.3k subscribers. It took him a bit of time to reach that number.

This incredible achievement serves as a testament to the power of consistent work and perseverance. It reminds us that building a successful youtube channel is not an overnight process. It starts with a few videos, slowly gaining traction and attracting initial subscribers, then week by week. those numbers begin to multiply until you find yourself celebrating milestones like Michael did.

Michael Meany grew his youtube channel by committing to the 90 day video challenge, he created a video every day for 90 days. He began his journey by sitting in front of the camera and talking about driving traffic and getting new leads. day after day Michael poured his heart into creating awesome, and really informative videos for his viewers, some days were easy, ideas flowed effortlessly and filming became second nature, other days more challenging. Michael's commitment to the 90 day video challenge proved that anyone can overcome their initial fears and achieve remarkable results.

If you are unsure where to start or intimidated by the thought of daily videos, embrace the 90 day video challenge and push yourself outside your comfort zone and discover what you are capable of, you will be amazed at how much progress you can make. in just three months of commitment you will have enough subscribers.

Oscar Owen, a young and passionate youtuber, has a knack for creating killer content that captivates his audience. with just six videos, he managed to skyrocket his channel to over 5.61k subscribers. leaving other content creators baffled and intrigued.

Oscar's journey begins with a simple idea to share his knowledge and experience on building, growing and scaling a youtube channel. his enthusiasm and authenticity shine through in every video he creates. making viewers feel like they are getting insider tips from a close friend rather than just another online tutorial.

as he shares good stuff, he makes viewers feel connected and inspired. as word spread about oscar's channel. more and more subscribers flock to subscribe, his subscriber count grows exponentially with new video releases. solidifying his position as a trusted resource for anyone looking to turn a youtube channel into a thriving success story.

Sometimes creating killer content videos that grab viewer's attention grows your youtube channel very quickly and attracts more ideal subscribers who will find your channel interesting because they found something unique. As I demonstrated above Dan Korsby grew his channel easily and quickly because he chose a very lucrative sub-niche within the MMO niche and created step by step videos to show people how to profit from clickbank and warriorplus.

Why do people subscribe to your youtube channel?

Have you ever stumbled upon a video that resonated with you so deeply that you were compelled to hit the subscribe button even without the creator explicitly asking you to do so? It is a testament to the captivating power of authentic and engaging content.

Recently, while watching a video till the very end. I found myself scrolling through the comments section in search of clues as to why viewers were subscribing in droves. amongst the sea of reactions, two comments stood out.

1- this video made me subscribe to her channel.

2- she never asked me to subscribe to her channel, but i did anyway.

These simple yet profound statements highlighted the impact of creating content that genuinely connects with the audience on a personal level. it is not about pushing for subscriptions. It is about delivering value, sparking emotions and building a community around shared interests and experiences. As content creators or marketers, the ultimate goal should be to create meaningful and authentic content that resonates with your audience on a deeper level. by focusing on storytelling, providing valuable insights and fostering genuine connections you can inspire action and loyalty from your viewers.

so next time. you are crafting your content strategy on scripting your next video, remember, it is not always about asking for subscriptions but rather about attracting them through compelling content.

Start a giveaway in video description

I recently stumbled upon an intriguing video by Russel Brunson on his youtube channel where he demonstrates seven books for marketers to grow their startups. I watched that video till the very end and I found myself immersed in his call to action and his genuine strategy that boosts his subscriber's list.

He was describing important things in the description.

to win all books in this video including a signed copy of traffic secrets, make sure you do the following

i eagerly followed his instructions outlined in the video description to win all the books mentioned including a signed copy of “traffic secrets”

Firstly, I hit the like button on the video, showing my support for his content and I swiftly subscribed to his channel to stay updated with his valuable insights and strategies. and it was the third step that sparked my creativity and enthusiasm. leaving a comment not only entered me into the book giveaway, but gave me an opportunity to express my thoughts and interact with like-minded individuals.

Honestly. I found myself immersed in Russel’s other books, inspired by his entrepreneurial spirit and his marketing tactics. Little did I know that this simple act of engagement would leave me down a path of valuable knowledge and connections and grow subscriber’s base of the youtube channel.

Optimize your youtube videos

If you want your youtube videos to reach a wider audience and attract more views. then it is important to optimize them effectively.

First, make sure to conduct thorough keyword research before creating your video. identify relevant keywords that are popular among your target audience and incorporate them into your video title, description and tags, this will help youtube algorithm understand the content of your video and rank it higher in search results.

Next, focus on creating engaging thumbnails for your videos. a visually compelling thumbnail can catch viewer’s attention and entice them to click on your video. use high quality images or screenshots that accurately represent the content of your video while being visually appealing.

Another crucial aspect of optimizing youtube videos is writing compelling descriptions, providing a concise summary of what viewers can expect from watching your video, and including relevant keywords naturally throughout the description to improve search rankings.

Lastly, do not forget to promote your videos outside of youtube as well. share them on social media platforms, embed them in blog posts or articles to topics and encourage viewers to like, comment, subscribe and share.

By implementing these optimization techniques consistently across all your youtube videos. you will increase their chances of reaching a wider audience and achieving higher engagement levels. so start applying these strategies today and watch as the visibility and success of your youtube channel soars!

Ask viewers to click the subscribe button

When it comes to the success of your youtube channel, the power of the subscribe button can not be underestimated, it serves as a direct call to action that prompts viewers to take a specific action- subscribe to your channel, but why do viewers click that button immediately?

The answer lies in the value they find in your video. when viewers click the subscribe button, it signifies that they have discovered something good on your youtube channel and they want more. they have experienced videos that resonate with them. engages their interest and provides value in some way whether it is educational videos, entertaining videos or insightful interviews with your audience, the quality and relevance of what you offer. you create a sense of trust and loyalty with your viewers. they understand that by subscribing they will gain access for future videos and updates from you. they will not miss out on any new video that aligns with their interests.

So, when you ask viewers to click the subscribe button on your youtube channel. make sure you have already provided them with something exceptional, give them a reason to take immediate action by consistently delivering amazing videos that keep them coming back for more.

Strategic promotion on different facebook groups

if you are looking to promote your youtube channel and gain more visibility, more subscribers and viewers. you can then tap into a ready-made community that is already interested in the content you create, facebook groups provide an excellent opportunity to connect with like-minded individuals.

these groups serve as a platform for sharing your youtube videos, when promoting your youtube channel on facebook groups, it is essential to approach it strategically. rather than simply dropping links and hoping for the best. take the time to engage with group members, by providing value through meaningful discussions and sharing insights related to your content.

By establishing yourself as an active and valuable member within these communities, you will naturally attract attention to your youtube channel. remember to follow each group's guidelines regarding self-promotion and always respect the community's rules.

If you are looking to boost your youtube's growth. this brilliant strategy is awesome. Why not create a facebook group centered around clickbank or your niche and share your insightful videos there? Once you are providing valuable content to the members of your clickbank group, you pique their interest and drive traffic to your youtube channel. engage with fellow enthusiasts, share tips, tricks and watch as your audience expands organically. start building a community that values your expertise today. the more value you add in the group, the more likely they will be to check out your youtube content and hit that subscribe button.

Interview an Influencer on his YouTube Channel:

Getting interviewed on a popular youtube channel can be a game changer for expanding your reach and gaining exposure. Ross, Korsby and Vistel have over 100K subscribers each. by appearing on one particular channel, you will have the opportunity with the host's subscribers, this will give you access to his subscribers as well as tapping into his engrossed audience.

With just over 100k views on one video, it is clear that this channel has a significant following and influence, by being featured in an interview you can position yourself as an expert in your field and showcase your knowledge to a wide audience.

This exposure can lead to increased visibility, brand recognition and even potential collaboration or partnerships with others in your industry, being interviewed on a channel opens doors and helps him post that video on his channel in front of wider audience and place a link in the video description. he guides interested viewers directly to your funnel, this ensures those who genuinely interested in your offerings have a clear path to engage your business with potential leads.

Before the highly anticipated launch of Tony Robbins book "money master the game" Tony engaged in a series of insightful interviews on various channels. these interviews served as a strategic move to generate buzz. build anticipation and create awareness about his upcoming book. Robbins strategically selected channels that would reach a wide audience and resonate with his target readership. By appearing on popular talk shows, podcasts and online youtube channels. he ensured his message reached individuals from diverse backgrounds and interests.

Through these interviews, Robbins shared valuable insights from his book while captivating audiences. With his charismatic personality and engaging storytelling abilities. he leveraged these opportunities to discuss key concepts from "money master the game" such as wealth creation strategies, investment advice and financial empowerment. the purpose of participating in numerous before launching was to create widespread awareness about his book and he sold millions of copies doing interviews.

Interviewing Tom Bilyen on his youtube channel "patrick bet david" was able to get in front of 3.86 million subscribers, that video alone has been viewed over 419k within 4 days! and sold many copies of his book {choose your enemies wisely}

Interviewing Gary Cardone on his youtube channel. Patrick David was able to get in front of 2.48 million subscribers. that video also has been viewed over 116k within 12 hours.

Interviewing Brad Lea TV on his youtube channel, Patrick was able to get in front of 226k subscribers. that video has been viewed over 5584 in a few hours.

The main purpose of interviewing very successful online Entrepreneurs is to create awareness and show people something new and unique.

Patrick David is a very successful Entrepreneur and great mentor. He knows what he is doing when it comes to business planning, strategic approaches, consulting for growing a business and he is a best selling Author. if you have a business and want to scale it to achieve big numbers. One hour consulting with this guy can skyrocket your business.

How to rank youtube videos

Understanding the keywords you want to rank your video for is like having a secret recipe for your channel's success. Knowing the keywords that align with your target audience can make it easier for the youtube algorithm to know the keywords you want to rank for and guide viewers to your videos. the youtube algorithm is designed to analyze various factors to determine which videos are most relevant for each viewer. How do you come up with these keywords for your videos? It is that simple and easier. when you type a keyword into the youtube search bar. It is like unlocking a treasure trove of potential. the suggested keywords that pop up can be your golden ticket to ranking and reaching more views. If you are unsure where to start, type in a keyword and let the platform work its magic. if you type weight loss. it shows you keywords like

How to lose weight fast

how to lose belly fat

how to lose body fat

And

weight loss exercise at home

weight loss at home

weight loss diet

And the list is long, those can be your keywords if you are in the weight loss niche.

I have seen several marketers rank their videos super fast on youtube because they have done. one channel, one audience. they create videos around clickbank. the more videos they record and post, the more trust they build with the youtube algorithm.

When you post a video on your youtube channel, your main focus is to get hundreds of thousands of views and turn them into subscribers and your most loyal fans from social media networks are more likely to be the first ones watching your videos, they are more inclined to watch it in its entirety. like, comment and share it with their community. this early engagement signals to youtube that your video is valuable. youtube's algorithm will start recommending your video in the sidebar of related videos and many even rank for that specific keywords and bring in more views from a wider audience beyond your immediate followers.

Youtube's algorithm raises enough data and determines the success of your video. If your video has these three important factors, then your content gets noticed wisely.

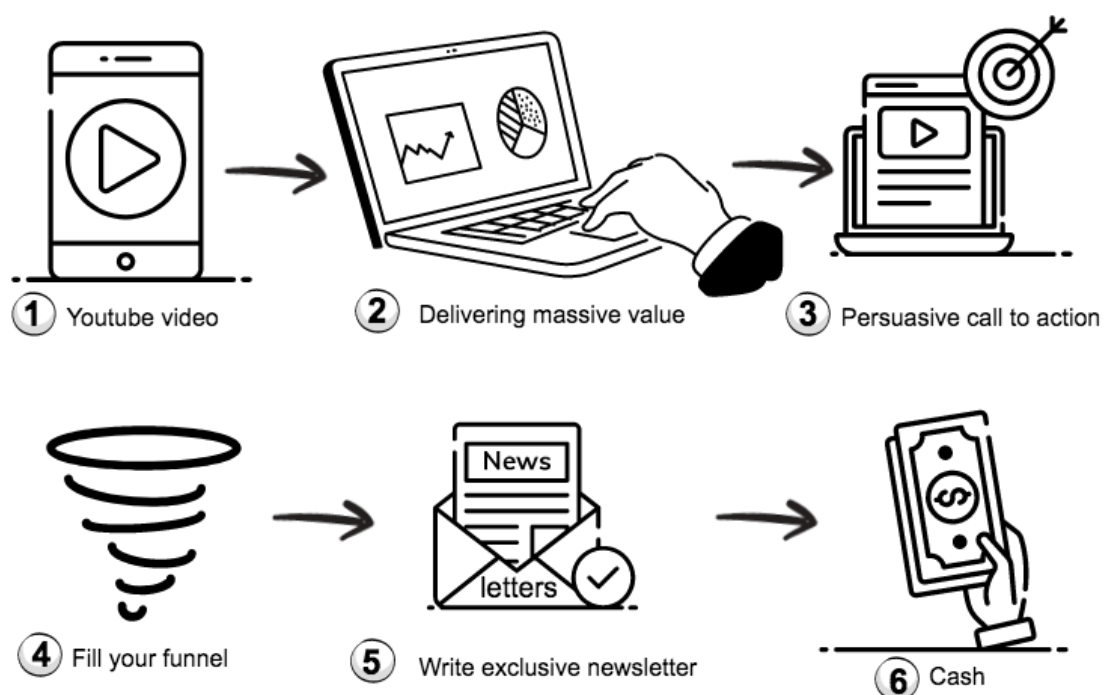

The click through rate (CTR): measures the percentage of viewers who click on your video after seeing it, a high ctr indicates that your video is engaging and relevant to viewers which can positively impact its performance on youtube.

Watch time: watch time refers to how long viewers spend watching your video that keeps them interested from start to finish. Additionally, optimizing your video's title, description and thumbnail can help attract more clicks and encourage longer viewing sessions.

Engagement: when viewers engage with a video by liking, commenting, sharing or subscribing to a channel it signals to youtube that the content is valuable and relevant. this increased interaction indicates higher viewer satisfaction and interest. prompting the algorithm to boost video's visibility in search results and recommendations.

It is often the small changes that make the biggest impact. you might already know that tiny tweaks have the power to transform a piece of content from mediocre to outstanding. whether it is adjusting a headline, rephrasing a sentence, changing the cover of the book or compelling call to action. these seemingly minor adjustments can significantly improve engagement and conversion rates.

One of the reasons why tiny tweaks have such big impacts is because they tap into human psychology. By understanding how people think and react, we can strategically make subtle changes that resonate with their target audience on a deeper level.

In the book “think and grow rich” by Napoleon Hill, there is a fascinating story about how a simple change (book cover) has resulted in millions of copies being sold. the story highlights the importance of effective packaging and presentation in capturing the attention and interest of potential readers or customers. It showcases how a small modification, such as an eye-catching cover design had a significant impact on sales. Napoleon Hill emphasizes the significance of understanding human psychology and leveraging it in our marketing strategies. It reminds us sometimes. it is not just what is inside the book, but also how it is perceived and presented to the target audience.

This insightful take serves as a powerful reminder for marketers and entrepreneurs to invest time and effort into crafting compelling visuals and messaging that resonates with their audience. It reinforces the idea that effective marketing goes beyond just creating content, it involves understanding consumer behavior and utilizing persuasive techniques to drive sales.

Now, let's figure out how this specific tactic works In the world of marketing. it's not just about attracting viewers and generating traffic to your funnel. the ultimate goal is to convert those viewers into leads and ultimately drive sales. But how exactly does this happen? Let's dive in and figure out how this specific tactic can turn viewers into valuable leads and sales.

Unlock the Secret Technique for YouTube Success!

There is no better place for marketing your business than youtube channel, it gets you traffic, today, tomorrow and in the coming years!

The Only Real Secret to Success: Your Email List

In the world of business, there are countless strategies and tactics that promise to unlock success and drive growth, however, when it comes down to the core of what truly fuels a thriving business, there is one secret that stands above the rest.

List building refers to the process of cultivating and growing a database of potential customers or clients who have expressed interest in your products or services. this invaluable asset allows you to establish direct communication channels with individuals who have already shown an interest in what you have to offer.

Why is list building so crucial? the answer lies in its ability to create a loyal customer base and drive consistent revenue, by nurturing relationships with those on your list. you can build trust and credibility over time. this trust leads to increased engagement, repeat sales and valuable referrals.

Moreover, having a targeted email list enables you to tailor your marketing efforts specifically towards those who are most likely to convert into paying customers. you can segment your audience based on their preferences, demographics or purchase history, allowing for highly personalized communication that resonates with each individual.

List building also provides a level of control over your business's success. regardless of changes in algorithms or fluctuations in social media trends. having direct access to your audience ensures that you can continue reaching them without relying solely on external platforms.

So, how does one go about effective list building? It involves employing various strategies such as offering valuable incentives like free resources or exclusive discounts in exchange for email address- additionally optimizing landing pages and utilizing lead capture forms on websites can help capture visitors information.

While there are many factors that contribute to business success. the only real secret lies in list building- by nurturing relationships with interested individuals and leverage targeted communication strategies. a business can create sustainable growth and unlock their full potential.

A Young American Entrepreneur named Mike was the key to success for many people. He had a strategy that worked out. He knew exactly what techniques to use to get the results he was after. At first I was skeptical- could it actually be that simple? But the more I dug into his technique the more I realized that he was using it to land new clients. He clearly had it all laid out. He was taking chances at any step of the way. that is exactly what i was ready to show you the best-kept secret technique I have ever witnessed online.

How did he do it? He used a good strategy in which he invited guests on different topics and these internet masters shared their best strategies, tactics, secrets and told their stories.

The craziest thing is that it is actually a cool strategy to do podcasting with very successful marketers, first to tell the world how they did it and also to attract more loyal subscribers and customers to your business. Once you are watching these videos you will never want to look back, you want to subscribe to his channel, opt-in to his webinar and come back for more.

something got my attention, something that deserves to be implemented in his channel. I know it sounds too good and trust me, you will not believe your initial results either. But at some point, i realized that this was the best secret technique to move forward if you are persistent and patient enough. you can easily insert this secret technique at the very end of your youtube videos and get lots of organic traffic, constsent leads and sales.

Do not just take my word for it though- just keep reading to check out what this secret technique has to offer. even if you are skeptical- you should still give it a try. and see the results yourself. Its simplicity is part of what makes it such a versatile approach and I strongly believe that this technique is going to continue expanding in more channels. It has lots of impact to drive consistent leads with no effort. and it is perfectly relevant to the way you run your online business, i have not seen any online expert use this technique to land new subscribers except this successful marketer.

He strategically placed a strong headline on a vibrant yellow box on every video he creates and posts. this unique technique was groundbreaking at the time, as no one else in the industry was utilizing it.

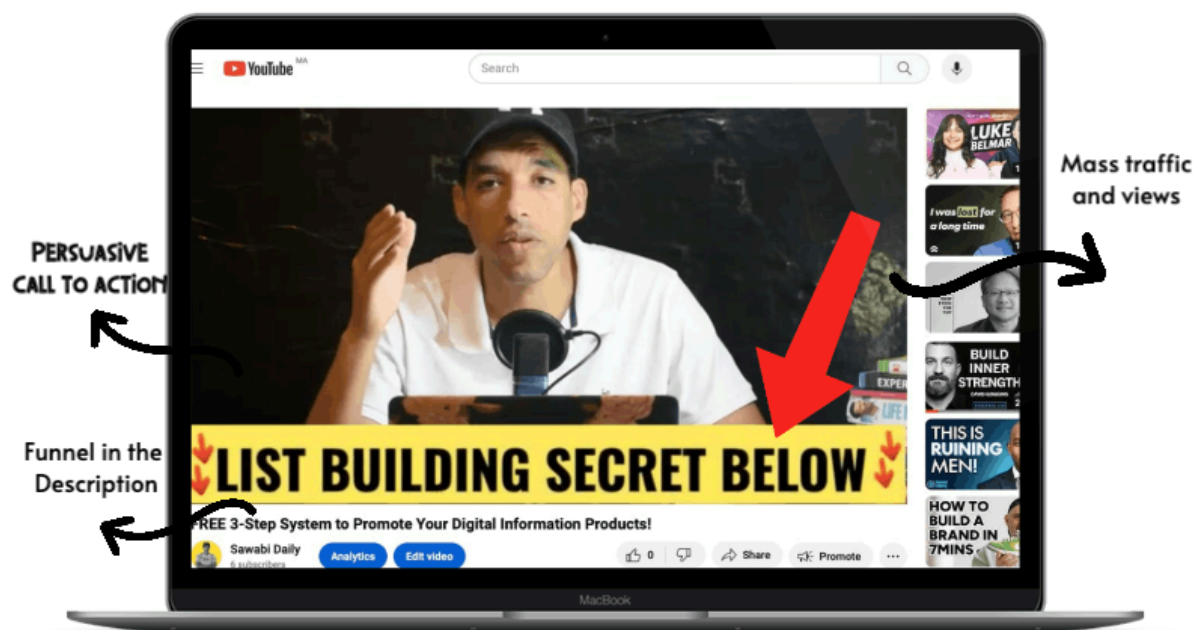

The secret call to action became Mike's signature move. setting him apart from his competitors and capturing new targeted leads. by leveraging this powerful technique. he was able to drive engagement and conversions like never before.

The effectiveness of Mike's call to action lies in its ability to grab attention, create urgency and compel viewers to take immediate action. the contrasting yellow box draws the eye and emphasizes the message. making it impossible for viewers to ignore it.

When a technique emerges that yields impressive results. It is only natural for savvy marketers to quickly adapt and implement in their own videos. this particular tactic which i stumbled upon and promptly liked. has proven to be a good technique in attracting leads through video marketing.

Achieve more with less work, more traffic and customers from videos you published. and consistent leads with no effort (from personal time). and more results with no effort (from personal effort). more customers from previous videos

Strong call to action: Imagine this, after watching an engaging and informative video. your viewers are left wanting more. they are excited about what they have just seen and eager to take the next step; this is where a strong call to action comes in. It is your chance to guide them towards the desired action- whether it is making a purchase, subscribing to a newsletter or simply sharing the video with their friends.

It is very important to have a strong call to action at the end of everything you do online, whether you are speaking on stages in front of hundreds of attendees, or in a live event or in a webinar or having a youtube channel. the call to action is a message that tells viewers what they should do next, it can be an invitation, a request, an order on an instruction or sign up for a service, sales funnel or a webinar.

A compelling call to action should be clear, concise and persuasive, it should clearly communicate what you want your viewers to do next and why they should do it, use actionable language that encourages response and creates a sense of urgency.

Remember, the end of your video is not the time for ambiguity or hesitation, you want your viewers to take action right away. so make sure your call to action stands out visually as well-use bold fonts, contrasting colors, or even animations that draw attention.

Do not wait for people to finish your videos easily, instead persuade them and tell them what to do:

When it comes to persuasion. the power of words can not be underestimated. the right choice of words can make all the difference in capturing attention. evoking emotions and ultimately influencing others to take action.

When I say persuade I mean using powerful words that have the ability to resonate with your audience on a deeper level. these words have the potential to ignite curiosity, create desire and instill a sense of urgency.

In today's fast-paced world where attention spans are shorter than ever. It is crucial to use persuasive language that cuts through the noise and grabs hold of your reader's attention.

By carefully, selecting powerful words that evoke emotion and convey a clear message. you can effectively communicate your ideas and compel others to see things from your perspective.

Whether you are crafting a sales pitch, writing an advertisement or delivering a persuasive speech. Understanding the impact of powerful words is essential, they have the ability to captivate minds. inspire action and leave a lasting impression.

so, when it comes to persuasion do not underestimate the power of words- choose them wisely and watch as they work their magic in captivating your audience and driving them towards your desired outcome.

persuading viewers in your video is not about being pushy or manipulative- it is about genuinely understanding their needs and showing them how your offering can fulfill those needs better than anyone else.

Attract them by Using The Magic of Yellow Box:

Have you ever wondered why the yellow box is often considered a game-changer when it comes to call to action strategy? It may seem like a single element, but many people have attested to its effectiveness in capturing attention and driving action.

The yellow box has gained a reputation of being a powerful thing in the world of marketing, its vibrant color acts as a beacon, drawing viewer's eyes towards your call to action at the end of a video or any other promotional material. It serves as an irresistible slice of bacon that entices your audience to take note and engage further.

While it may seem like magic, there is actually some science behind this thing. Studies that showed certain colors such as yellow are more likely to grab attention compared to others. This makes the yellow box an ideal choice for highlighting your call to action.

When strategically placed at the end of your video, the yellow box can create a visual hierarchy that guides viewers towards taking action. Its contrasting color against the background helps it stand out and ensures that your message does not get lost in the noise.

So, if you are looking for an effective way to boost engagement and conversion, consider incorporating the power of the yellow box into your strong call to action strategy, embrace its ability to captivate audiences and watch as it elevates your marketing efforts to new heights.

Remember. However, the yellow box can be a valuable asset in driving action. it is essential not to solely rely on its charm. crafting compelling copy and providing value. through your offer remain key components of any successful call to action campaign.

Harnessing this secret weapon will undoubtedly enhance your marketing endeavors and help you achieve great results. So why wait? embrace the power of the yellow box in your youtube videos and witness firsthand how it transforms your call to action into an irresistible force for conversion!

Fill your Webinar Funnel with Consistent Leads:

Webinar is a live online seminar that takes place over the internet, with interactive presentation and live Q & A session with the audience. It is also possible for you to record the webinar so that you can play it back at any time they missed it.

Doing a webinar. Is it a good way to educate your prospects on something that benefits them? most internet masters would say yes. they have been in the industry and know how powerful launching a successful webinar is. they know what the purpose is. if we all know that webinar can be used to increase sales and buyers automatically. the question is how can we get people to register at our webinar funnel? and what is the best strategy to fill a webinar funnel?

In sports. teams have coaches and managers who are responsible for coming up with strategies that will help them win the game. a basketball team can't play without a strategy. they need to know how to play their positions, when to shoot, when to pass and what they do if they lose the ball. In general many do not have a smart strategy, they can not decide what they should do, when they should do it and who should be doing that correctly. they are in constant confusion and chaos that prevents them from winning.

No business can succeed without traffic. traffic is the lifeblood of any business. without traffic a business would not be able to generate revenue or make a profit.

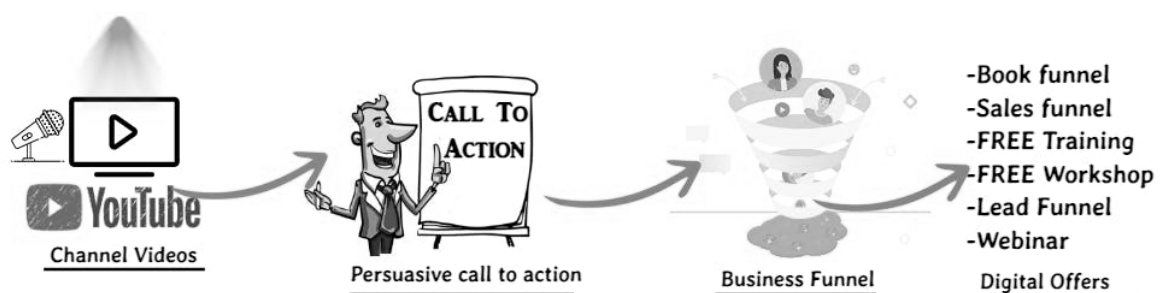

the more people that visit your webinar and buy, the more money you will make, so traffic is important, but the hardest part is. How can you fill your webinar funnel and convert them into buyers? How can you promote your webinar? and where to find the best strategies?

Following an internet millionaire's Strategy.

Following a millionaire has its benefits. it can open up doors to opportunities that would not have been available otherwise. you can follow their footsteps and learn from them. get inspired by them or even emulate their success in your own way. they have been doing webinars and know the secret.

Everyone's journey is different and unique, what we can do is to learn from those who are successful and apply their best techniques and strategies. they mastered sales and found the right mentors and became so good at selling webinars and had success with it.

Mike is a youtube content creator who started with zero subscribers on his channel, it became very obvious to him that he needed some publicity and ideas. He set his mind on delivering massive value to attract people who are interested in affiliate marketing and clickbanking. sharing good strategies, methods, hacks and MMO ways to help clueless newbies, he realized one of the best strategies to attract people to subscribe to his channel is by interviewing six figure marketers. However, these masters agreed to interview them for thirty minutes each and post their business links in the description to get their traffic and customers.

After two interviews with two guests. Mike started seeing effortless growth on his channel because of his unique marketing approach, he did not anticipate the amount of the engagement he had. Mike just goes on interviewing more business Gurus and publishes videos that would help his youtube subscribers start their first online business.

But Mike exposed a secret weapon that was designed to register viewers for the webinar. He used two things: “wait for people to finish the videos, persuade them and tell them what to do” and “Attract them by using the magic yellow box”. He knew that call to action grabs their attention as he asked them to check out the description where they can find an interesting webinar funnel.(words on video convert viewers into leads and customers)

The main goal of this secret is not only registering people for the webinar, but also to grow his email list and follow up with them.

If you are using a lead funnel:

If you are using a lead funnel to attract potential customers. you need to offer a free ebook in exchange for their email address. providing a free ebook serves as a powerful incentive for visitors to share their email address. you can build a list of interested prospects who have shown genuine interest in your niche or topic. this allows you to nurture these leads over time through targeted email marketing campaigns.

So, if you are using a lead funnel strategy, you do not miss out on the opportunity to offer a free ebook in exchange for email addresses. It is an effective way to capture leads. establish authority and ultimately drive conversions for your business.

If you are using a book funnel:

If you are looking to maximize your profits and establish a strong connection with your audience, utilizing a book funnel strategy can be highly effective. by directing people to purchase my book “how to get clients” on Amazon. I encouraged them to email me for the three exclusive bonuses.

The primary objective of this book funnel is clear. selling the book and generating profit. However, it is equally important to leverage this opportunity to establish a direct line of communication with readers, by asking them to email you for the bonus. you can capture their contact information and build a long-term relationship.

This approach allows you to own that traffic by having direct access to potential clients who have already shown interest in your product. it opens up avenues for future engagement. such as offering additional products or services related to your expertise in getting clients.

Adding a book funnel link in your video description helps you achieve immediate sales. but also cultivate a loyal following that can lead to further opportunities down the time.

If you are using a sales funnel:

When it comes to a sales funnel, the ultimate objective is to effectively sell digital information products or physical products, whether it is an ebook, online course or a software program, the goal remains the same to convince and convert potential customers into paying ones.

To achieve this goal, it is important to use persuasive copywriting techniques that highlight the unique selling points of the offer.

Fill your Funnel:

Whether you are promoting a book funnel, sales funnel or lead funnel, incorporating videos into your marketing strategy allows you to showcase your expertise, educate your audience about the value of your offerings and ultimately drive more leads and sales. So remember to post enough videos and ensure that all conclude with a persuasive call to action that compels viewers to take the next step.

the more valuable videos you record and publish, the more chances you will have to capture more leads. so make sure you record step by steps videos that attract the most views all the time.

Step# 16: Send Traffic to Your Squeeze Page

You might be wondering what a funnel is. It is basically as it sounds. Imagine a funnel right now. the important step is to lead visitors to somewhere a little more specific.

From there, you will essentially narrow the content and lead them to the action you want them to take, be it signing up for your email list.

Email list is your ticket to profit from blogging. you own the list, if your social media accounts were to get hacked or deleted.

What would you do?

Once your email list has been built and you have developed your funnel of emails, it's time to make money.

In the beginning, we talked about the power of targeting a minority of people who have a problem and want a real solution and how breaking down the niche can put you in a lucrative business and make significant income.

For instance: List building is an evergreen sub-niche. It is profitable this week, next month and over the next coming years.

Growing an email list is the hardest part of building a healthy business and lots of folks really need exclusive tips and strategies to grow their online businesses.

The best way to get commissions is when someone buys through your affiliate link. Not sure what an affiliate is or does?

An affiliate is someone who promotes offers. It could be from Amazon, Clickbank, JVzoo, Warriorplus or ClickFunnels affiliate program.

If a customer buys a product through your affiliate link using email within the content or social Media where you advertise, you get paid.

You also have to continuously advertise the offer. Keep sharing on social media platforms from time to time, but not every day.

If I am an affiliate marketer and send a trendy product "Gsniper" to a customer and he buys it, I get paid 70% from Clickbank.

The commission you get paid is based on the agreement between the product owner and the network, they set a reasonable commission to attract affiliates to promote these offers.

Before you send out a product, build that trust with your email subscribers. Let's figure out how to follow up with them and build that trust. the first thing you should do is to send a confirmation email to everyone who subscribes to your list.

Send Subscribers to Thank you Page

When people sign up to download a freebie, you create a positive first impression and show that you value their trust. this page serves as a bridge between their initial interest in your offer and the next step in your sales funnel.

But why stop at just saying “thank you”? this is also an ideal moment to present them with a low ticket offer that aligns with their interest, by delivering value right away. you not only increase the chances of making an immediate sale. but also build momentum for future conversions.

the most important thing about the “thank you page” you can sell without being salesy. people sign up and receive an OTO.

Remember, the key is relevance. make sure that the low ticket offer on your thank you page complements the freebie they just received, this way you are providing them with even more value, while keeping their attention focused on what they initially signed up for.

So, your job is to sell them something immediately.

1- they have just viewed your video on youtube...which means they received enough value while keeping their attention focused.

2- they saw your persuasive call to action at the end of the video and clicked on the webinar funnel.

3- next. they entered their personal information to learn something new and unique... you offer them a solution.

4- they then find themselves hovering over that big shiny send button. remember the potential it holds, embrace it as an opportunity... with each click you have the ability to get more sign ups.

Before you send an OTO. find out what your prospect does not have and give it to them. if they buy from you...that means you are earning a commision.

Deliver the right offer $9, $37, $47 and they will buy.

You do not have to create a digital product. Clickbank and other stable marketplaces already have a big list of profitable products in different niches....

All you need is to open an account and find profitable products that sell well. if those people did not purchase, no problem. they are on your email list and there is a good chance they will buy later. you made a clear approach and it is not gone.

It is all about following up with your list subscribers. If your lead magnet is a free checklist of Proven list building strategies. You'll want to write an amazing welcome email about "Email list secrets". this can be anything related from setting up a Red hot funnel and driving traffic. then in your second Email. You can start to write about how to collect targeted leads, and in your third email, you tell stories and make people follow your journey.

Email 1: Email list secrets

Email 2: The benefits of Red hot funnel

Email 3: Driving targeted traffic

Email 4: Engaging stories about your journey

Email 5: Send quality products

Day1: welcome emails

Heat up your subscribers by building a kind of a welcome message sequence. introduce yourself and tell people a little about yourself. Ask them a question and even add a questionnaire, give an Additional freebie and prompt them to subscribe to your newsletter.

Email 2: Give super high value

Send the new content on your website that you have just developed to your email subscribers.

Many viewers want to receive the latest articles.

Send tips and tricks that your subscribers find useful and can instantly use. If you notice a new technique or idea that is productive, but perhaps the knowledge isn't extensive enough to make it into a blog entry, deliver it to their email address.

Older posts not widely circulated which are fantastic ways to repurpose your existing content.

Transmit information that you have written that is beneficial to your followers and provide a free version of an item or a trial version download.

Email 3: share your own story

Send a touching story. There should always be interesting stories that are on your particular topic. monetize and submit material from other sites that your readers might find useful. Why don't you mention the top posts you saw last week?

Article curation also allows you to honor some of your compatriot's material clients or Collaborators.

Give away free invites, tickets to new product, web casts and offer free things

Email 4: give fresh content

Ask critical questions and send out a survey, communicate with your audience. start a conversation from time to time. It will make you understand your readers, generate innovative ideas for articles, services and items that help you build a connection.

Respond to questions from your readers and optimize your registered users and your fan base will give you suggested ideas to put into your newsletter.

Email 5: add more value

It is all about providing tons and tons of value. You find a problem and show people solutions. when they open your newsletter, they are not interested in you, they are interested in how much you care about them. Readers flock for the name of the marketer that offers massive value. Fresh content creates brain awareness and prompts subscribers to say "Wow, another email with tremendous value." making a name for yourself entices readers to look for your messages.

The intention is to write and send stunning newsletters about a single topic to keep your subscribers engaged and interactive. Afterwards, you lead them to purchase products through affiliate links.

Step# 20: What products should I send?

If you seriously want your subscribers to buy from you, you have to show them something they do not have and really need.

You have launched a captivating blog, published 20 well written articles and built a tiny targeted email list. Now it is the right time to send them the right product.

They are interested in building an email list and having their own audience. Just go to clickbank and find the top product out there.

We need sales and they need the right product. If you show them a relevant product, they quickly buy it.

We already know every business needs more ideal clients and more customers. I did some research on clickbank and found 3 products about that specific sub-niche.

Now, I will write a short newsletter and present that offer to my tiny email list. If there is no product on that topic, I highly recommend some software and tools you have used in your own business.

Step# 21: Launch your product

If you have not yet launched a product. Now is time to think about what you can sell on your website. Do you want to launch an actual product or is your blog better suited for e-books and services?

No matter what you choose, it's time to launch. But you cannot do that without getting up the conversion properly. that means creating a funnel for your email list.

This will take some time because you can't just send 10 emails in a single day. Instead, take a few weeks to provide your email subscribers with value before asking them to purchase something from you.

The more you give them for free, the higher the chance they will want to purchase what you are selling to them.

So first, send them an email announcing the launch of your new product or service then send a series of emails related to it, but without going into too much detail.

You want them to desire the actual product.

After this series of emails, offer the product to them as a more in-depth insight of what you have been talking to them about through your stream of emails.

First provide value in a form that's related to your product and then present what you are selling in an appealing manner.

Traffic Mastery Simplified

Congratulations! I think you have learned a secret cash system that top internet masters use to get traffic, leads and sales all day long.

Now you are able to get incoming traffic, acquire new leads and you also learned new tips and techniques. Figured out where audiences hang out and serve them with the absolute most value. content, videos, free eBooks, free posts, and pre-launch content.

The information i reveal in this report has gotten me visitors, subscribers and sales.

Everything starts with serving an audience. they are on several platforms and if you write amazing stuff by giving them what they want, they will follow you, check out your Author page and join your funnel. Now it's your turn to implement what you've learned. Remember, Tony Robbins quote "rewards come in action". Don't try to re-invent a new way of marketing. get into the market and learn the basics. Implement what you learn and take massive action.

Every business owner knows that having a strong email list is crucial for success. But constantly struggling to find new subscribers, wasting hours on inefficient strategies, and seeing disappointing growth can be incredibly frustrating.

The better, smarter, and more efficient way to grow your email list is to record creative, informative and attractive videos and watch as your subscriber numbers soar organically, also add a persuasive call-to-action to entice viewers and set up a good funnel that delivers value and gives these people a compelling reason to join your community, you will quickly start attracting as many potential customers as possible organically.

Once viewers click on the call to action, make sure they are directed through a well-optimized funnel. provide them with valuable incentives such as exclusive content or special offers in exchange for their email addresses.

If you follow this proven strategy, you'll attract an ever-increasing number of people who will willingly fill your funnel organically, not even today, tomorrow.but for years to come without any effort on your part.

Yours sincerely,

Advanced Marketing Strategy For Generating traffic, leads and sales

The #1 secret gold mine source of traffic that top internet marketers rely on to build a big list and get instant traffic and leads in their businesses.

This gold mine traffic source can grow your business exponentially! from getting a few leads a day to boatloads of responsive leads in a couple weeks.

Jeff Walker is a very successful online Entrepreneur and the best selling Author of the book “Launch” he made millions of dollars teaching people how to start and grow their businesses using product launch Formula. He used this secret traffic method to add 8000 people to his list just within a couple days and it didn’t stop there. His JV partners kept sending out emails to his squeeze page. In a matter of days, he built a list of 15.000 Email Subscribers.

This is what all top internet influencers have in common. before the launch goes live. They contact a world class marketer to send out an email to his 50.000, 30.000, or 10.000 email subscribers to his squeeze page. within a couple days they get tons of traffic and opt-ins without investing on paid ads.

So, what is a JV partner? And where to find them to promote for you and build your list quickly?

I have never used this with someone who has a large email list. Instead I attracted more than 200 affiliates on warriorplus.com to promote my “list building product” because I gave them a reason to promote for me.

How To Attract Affiliates To Promote You?

These affiliates will have a look at your JV page and ensure the product is compelling and the sales page converts.

Grow Your Email List using 3 simple steps:

- 1- Run a webinar, list it on Clickbank and let the affiliates send you tons of leads.

2- Launch a product and partner with a big list of owners for a reason.

3- Launch an offer on Warriorplus, JVZOO and Clickbank

Build a Strong Relationship:

Getting an affiliate to send out an email to his list is not an easy process. He has to know, like and trust you.

Your core strategy:

Traffic: i would suggest focusing on reliable sources of traffic like Google, Facebook and YouTube. Focus on one platform, stick to it, master it and learn its secrets.

Squeeze page: Send traffic to a squeeze page to build a list and grow a tribe of loyal audience.

Leads: One of the biggest challenges a lot of bloggers encounter online when it comes to blogging is how to get high quality leads. capturing leads is not a problem if you focus on giving so much value.

Offers: the best way to create a lasting relationship is to keep sending out high quality products you purchased and used in your own business.

Sales: getting sales is based on serving customers. show them a good offer and they show you the money, that's it.
